

Candidate for Tribal Council

Colorado River Indian Tribes

James Gilchrist Jr.,

I am James Gilchrist Jr., and I am honored to announce my candidacy for Tribal Council. I am running for Tribal Council with a bold vision: to bring real, lasting change to the Colorado River Indian Tribes. For too long, corruption and personal gain have held our community back. Decisions have been made that benefit the few, while the many have suffered. This ends now.

My mission is clear: to hold our Tribal Council accountable—not just for today, but for future generations. We deserve a leadership that prioritizes the well-being of our people, not the pockets of Tribal Council. I will fight for transparency in every decision, demand honest stewardship of our resources, and ensure that every action taken by the council is rooted in integrity and respect for our traditions.

I am committed to bringing honesty, fairness, and responsibility back to our leadership. The time for change is now. Together, we will dismantle the systems of corruption that have undermined our trust and reclaim the power that rightfully belongs to the people of our tribe.

The time for change is now. Our tribe deserves leadership that prioritizes the community, not personal gain. Together, we can reclaim our power, restore trust, and build a future where we all thrive.

Let's make it happen!
